The only place at which a good man can't get credit these days is the bank.

Just because they worship money is no reason why some people should emulate it by getting tight.

Prosperity continues to reign throughout the country except in a few instances, when it pours.

"Every cloud has a silver lining," although at times the lining is not visible to the naked eye.

Today is the big day of the football season and there will be heroes galore to worship in collegiate circles tonight.

In the ten months just passed the copper production of Globe was within a few pounds of the entire output of 1906.

Governor Kibbey's Thanksgiving proclamation is out. There is always something for which a president or governor can be thankful.

Ten killed and sixty injured during the present football season. And still scientific sparring matches are barred by the law in most states.

Poor Los Angeles! First the real estate boom busted and now the city council has limited prize fighting to ten rounds and no decision.

One good way in which to prevent the hoarding of coin is for the business men to advertise bargains. The Daily Silver Belt is read in every Globe home.

United States senators have been thick in the southwest during the past week. El Paso has been entertaining Senator Joe Bailey and Douglas has had "in her midst" a bunch of senatorial investigators.

A youth writes the Los Angeles Examiner for advice as to what he should read to become a banker and financier. If he were a daily newspaper reader these days, he would not cherish such an ambition.

According to some panicky municipal knockers, Butte is on the bum, Bisbee's on the blink and Globe is on the glide. Knockers always find ready and credulous listeners during times of real or fancied stress.

It is reported that when work resumes at Cananea it will be with an entirely new working staff and force. The recent shutdown looks like a job put up by Dr. Rocketts to get rid of the "deadwood" that accumulated in the big Sonora camp during the Greene regime.

President Roosevelt has announced his intention of playing "shiny" on skates this winter. The chances are that he will be "shinying" on the "other side" most of the time. At least in the affairs of the country he has shown his inability, or unwillingness, to "shiny on his own side."

STABBED BY DAUGHTER'S HAND

The United States has suffered another blow. The knife has been run in its gizzard to the hilt and left there. The worst of it is that the hand which wielded the weapon and inflicted the grievous wound, was that of one of its beautiful and gifted daughters.

Miss Geraldine Farrar, prima donna de lux, has expatriated herself. She renounces an denounces her country because, forsooth and egad, truth, that rare quality which afflicts some great minds, compels her "to admit that there is no art in the United States." But not content with the simple statement, she proceeds to rub it in by particularizing.

"It is only money there," she says. So she has gone to Germany to make her home, where there are other things besides money. There are, for instance, court scandals, a "round table" controlled and controlling by the occult, a philosophy of pessimism, which has resulted in a lamentable moral laxness. A king by divine right with contrasting rampant socialism, and many other features of public and social life that cannot be found in the United States.

Yet how can Miss Farrar say that "Americans are deficient in artistic appreciation," and yet that it is the lack of art here which takes so many Americans to Europe. That does not sound consistent. How also can she say that when she sang in this, her own country, no one knew whether she sang well or badly. Surely she remembers that the west was as positive that she sang well as the east was certain that she sang badly.

Indeed, Miss Farrar is both ungrateful and forgetful. She should remember at least the appreciation this country lavished on the art of her distinguished father, from whom she inherited her voice and artistic temperament.

When Sid Farrar let loose his voice on the side lines, with the bases full and two out, the thousands on the bleachers raised up and paid him homage. It was worth more than all the rest of the game just to hear Sid fairly lift a man from third on his voice and slide him in safe over the home plate.

Yet his daughter says we do not appreciate art, and "cannot judge music because utterly lacking in understanding." To be sure, we are not all the progeny of artistry; we are not all the next generation to baseball nobility; we have not all had Miss Farrar's inheritance and opportunities.

Most of us are only the middle class, but we all worshiped her noble father, and that should be something, while even the eastern critics admitted that the daughter was exceptionally good looking and she drew a monstrous wage, on which she can live comfortably for some time in rural Berlin. Maybe when the money is gone she will revise her judgment, withdraw the dirk and conclude that, after all, New York and a thousand a night is "not so worse."

IN ARIZONA

William Wright, a negro sent to the penitentiary from Graham county for assault with intent to kill, had previously served a term at Yuma. He was sent up from Pinal county in 1898 for criminal assault, and pardoned by the president in 1903.

Twelve convicts were taken to the penitentiary during the past week.

Yuma butchers have entered into an agreement whereby all markets are to be closed on Sunday.

Chris Urbel, a former Yuma convict, released in November, 1906, returned to Yuma the other day and distributed among the merchants forged checks to the amount of about $65. His paper was on the German Savings bank of Los Angeles.

Yuma's new school building will be of Spanish design, with beautiful courtyards and fountains of playing water.

Chicago will furnish the "hired help" for the New Gadsden hotel at Douglas, which will probably be formally opened on Thanksgiving day.

Douglas is to have a strong football team with a Syracuse university man for coach.

Tempe closed up shop en masse Friday and took in the territorial fair.

A Tucson concern has received an order for 400,000 brick to be used in the construction of the Saseo smelter.

Dr. Ricketts announces that 800 men are at present employed at the Greene-Cananea properties, Cananea, and that if the present prices of copper are maintained, 1,500 men will soon be working.

Caesar Carlett has been held to the grand jury at Tucson for making an assault with intent to murder Burr Cummings.

The Arizona Sunday School association will be in session today and tomorrow at Phoenix.

Phoenix by special act of congress will vote on a bond issue to take up city warrants outstanding to the amount of $130,000.

Arizona funeral directors are in session at Phoenix.

Phoenix merchants, who contributed liberally to the baseball tourney, assert that the games have robbed them of hundreds of dollars' worth of business by attracting the people to the grounds during the morning hours.

Tucson is overrun by tramps and it has been found necessary to put on extra policemen.

Ralph Buckley, a 4-year-old Prescott boy, dropped a pistol with which he was playing and was instantly killed.

Daylight robbers are working in Tucson. Residences are receiving their attention.

A train crew running north of Nogales found the decomposed body of a man lying beside the track. On the return trip three hours later the body had disappeared. The officers are investigating the matter.

If the Phoenix papers continue to ship out that "first" car of oranges the crop will be exhausted before the work of loading the second car has been commenced.

Notice

P. Puhara & Co. have purchased the Union restaurant from Vuksanovich & Co. and the latter will retain all accounts against and payable to the restaurant. The new firm does not assume any of the indebtedness of the retiring firm. The Union will be open for business on Monday, November 11.

AMUSEMENTS

One of the Best Rube Plays

"Joshua Simpkins," a four-act New England play, will be presented at Dreamland tonight. The climax of stage realism it is asserted, has been reached in the presentation of the stirring sawmill scene in "Joshua Simpkins," and will be presented in this city by a peculiar mechanical device which has never before been introduced here before. This sawmill scene is claimed to be a vast improvement over any attempts in a similar line. The company also boasts of a splendid orchestra, which is carried complete by the organization, to aid in the proper presentation of the play, which is said to abound with musical and dancing specialties of a high order. To assist "Joshua Simpkins" in popularity a band of music is also carried and a concert is given which is said to be far above anything usually heard with a traveling musical organization. The parade will leave the theater at the usual time and take the usual route, making a burlesque parade.

Midget Dies in a Poorhouse

John Harding, to whom P. T. Barnum offered $800 a week to exhibit himself, died in the poorhouse here today. Harding's pride would never permit him to place himself on show with the midgets, the giants and the fat ladies; and so, while he might have amassed a considerable fortune, he died a pauper.

Nature was in strange mood when she brought him into being. Harding was 43 years old, but he was no bigger than a normal 2-year-old boy. His arms and legs were gnarled and twisted and from the moment of his birth they were in unceasing motion. Against his will his legs kicked and his arms swung around like a windmill's. He never walked, he never even crept.

Nevertheless, he had a fine brain and a wonderful memory. He taught himself to read and write and read good books constantly.—Norwalk (Conn.) dispatch to the New York World.

PAINTING RUINED FOR SPITE

Valuable Picture Blashed between Florence and New York

NEW YORK, November 15.—An oil painting of the "Madonna and Child" was purchased in Italy by Dan Fellows Platt of Englewood, N. J., a lawyer. When it arrived today it was found to have been cut and slashed. The picture, by a well known artist of the Italian school, was shipped from Florence and had been carefully packed. It is believed that the picture, after it left the hands of the dealer, was intercepted by a rival, who destroyed it out of spite.

BECOMES POLY DIRECTOR

SAN LUIS OBISPO, Cal., November 15.—At a meeting of the trustees of the California Polytechnic school here today Professor Lacey B. Smith, a member of the school faculty, was appointed director of the institution to succeed Dr. Lacey Anderson. Dr. Anderson is to be the head of the state dairy school in Yolo county.

DUCRY HAS NO PUBLIC DEBT; TAXES ARE LIGHT

BERLIN, November 15.—The duchy of Saxe-Altenburg is in some respects a taxpayer's elysium. It has no public debt. A sum of $230,500 figures under that head; but, in fact, it is a fund for widows and orphans of state officials who contributed to it during life. There is one little item of $12,500 also entered as "debt," which goes each year for religious and educational work; but against this stands a reserve fund of $2,000,000.

One More Chance

Don't miss the big show at the Iris tonight. Entire change Sunday night.

You can't be well if you have a weak, unhealthy, tired out stomach. Neither can you feel good if by some little irregularity in eating you have caused the stomach to get out of order. These little stomach troubles are signs of indigestion, which may and very often does turn into a very bad case of dyspepsia. Don't allow them to go on a single day without doing something to overcome it. Take some good, reliable and safe digestant like KODOL for dyspepsia. KODOL is the best remedy known today for heartburn, belching and all troubles arising from a disordered digestion. It is pleasant to take and affords prompt relief. Sold by Hanna's Drug Store.

A Jolly Tramp in Town

See Mr. Swor do his funny tramp act at the Iris tonight.

Hypnotic Sunstroke

A German physician who had a patient who could not afford to go to a warm climate, thought he would accomplish the same result by means of hypnotism. The doctor chalked a picture of the sun on the ceiling, and by suggestion induced the patient to believe it really was the sun and that it would cure him. But the patient soon died.

When the doctor's friends grieved him about the novel treatment he indignantly explained that the patient was getting along nicely and would have got well had he not unexpectedly died of sunstroke.—New York Press.

Annual Sale of Beautiful
SNOWY TABLE LINENS

For Thanksgiving

IT WAS an early Pilgrim custom, after a bountiful harvest, to offer thanks to the Supreme Being, and partake of a royal feast. This beautiful custom has ever since been carried out by a thoughtful and appreciative people. Thanksgiving this year, November 28, will be the most glorious in the history of this wonderful nation. It is every housekeeper's pride that her Thanksgiving festive board shall be spotless and snowy, and with this in mind, we have collected the choicest patterns in beautiful table linens produced by the most famous linen mills in the world. Ireland, Scotland, Germany and England are contributors to this brilliant display of housekeepers' linens.

DR. PRICE'S CREAM
BAKING POWDER

A PURE, healthful, grape cream of tartar powder, the only kind that can be used without impairing the healthfulness of the food. Makes the biscuit, cake and pastry more digestible and wholesome. Absolutely free from alum and phosphate of lime.

Chemical analyses show the low priced powders made of alum to contain large quantities of sulphuric acid, and that a portion of the alum from alum baking powders remains unchanged in the food! You cannot afford to take alum and sulphuric acids into your stomach.
